

Vetting List for Parishes 2022

Role	Rationale
Childrens Catechist	Child Catechist's prepare children for the sacrmets of Communion and Cofirmation and other church events such as Easter and Christmas. In some parishes, they conduct Sunday school.
Parish Safeguarding Representatives (PSR)	The Parish Safeguarding Representative is responsible for ensuring all activities for children are run in a caring and safe manner. This requires the PSR to ensure that all such Activities operate within the Diocesan safeguarding policies and procedures and entails the PSR attending such activities on a periodical basis as required.As the key safeguarding person in the parish, their details are widely publicised should anyone have a safeguarding concern..
Sacristans (including supervisory function)	Sacristans who as part of their role supervise altar servers before and after mass
Altar Server Leader	The Altar Server Leader is responsible for training of altar server for Sunday Mass and other church services.
Children & youth choir leaders	Children & Youth Choir leaders run our choirs for under 18's . A major part of their roles is teaching children and young people.
Children Liturgy and Prayer group leaders.	Children Liturgy/ Prayer group leaders run events for children both on parish property and off site. Such events would include prayer meetings, bible classes and religious drama.
Parish Youth Club Leaders	Parish youth club leaders run events for mainly older children in parish halls and centres.
Sacramental Preperation Leaders	Sacramental Preperation Leaders prepare children for Communion & Confirmation

Visitation Team Members	Visitation Team members visit those in the parish who are sick or confined to their home due to disability.
Lay Preachers	Lay preachers deliver retreats in parishes usually lasting one to two weeks. As part of their retreats they deliver religious activities for children. They also visit sick or disabled parishioners in their homes.
Parish Pilgrimage Leaders	Parish Pilgrimage leaders organise pilgrimages to holy sites such as Lourdes and Knock. They look after the physical needs of vulnerable adults and children.
Parish Centre staff & volunteers	Parish centre staff and volunteers are responsible for supervising children. This occurs when children arrive for activities before their leaders arrive. The same principle applies to vulnerable adults
Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist	Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist bring Communion to vulnerable people in their homes / nursing homes as they are unable to attend Mass.
